

The Well – Health Screening Practice

Services: It has been well documented that many common severe problems can be prevented or cured if they are caught early enough and in many cases long before you notice any symptoms at all. The Well provides very comprehensive health screening programmes to help identify any existing health problems you may have, assess your disease risk factors and provide you with the tools and recommendations to help you achieve a healthy and balanced lifestyle with a focus on stress management and lifestyle changes. The Well provides a range of medicals for both men and women and there is also a choice of male or female doctors available.
